It's the hospital patient who must wait for a Chaplain, the Baptism that won't have a priest, the sixth grade class that won't have a religion teacher, the homeless person who won't get a meal.

In each of these scenarios, what's missing is a priest, deacon, brother or sister - unable to serve because of an untreated alcohol or drug problem. One out of ten clergy or religious suffers such a chemical addiction.

For the past 50 years, more than 7,000 have come to Guest House for rehabilitation. Following treatment, over 75% have maintained lifetimes of sobriety. To learn more about Guest House please contact us at guesthouse.org or call 800-626-6910*.*

We've Had an Increase in Vocations Here at Guest House

In the last three years, the number of sisters who have come to us for help about their alcohol, drug, gambling or eating problems has doubled. While the number of sisters ha declined in the United States, we are helping more each year.

Many of these sisters come to us from communities that are poor and unable to pay for treatment. But thanks to the generous donors of Guest House, we are able to provide their treatment without regard to their ability to pay. And they do recover. As one siste said, "I've found my God back at Guest House."

We're happy at Guest House for Women Religious about our new state-of-the-art treatment building for sisters in Lake Orion, Michigan. This new handicapped accessible and user-friendly building reflects our commitment to meet the needs of sisters who come to us with addictions. It's a nice building. But more importantly, we have the people, the "living stones," who carry the message of hope and recovery to each person who comes to Guest House.
